

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

JAN 16 1987

AT A CHAPTER, HOLDEN SEPTEMBER, 1859;

IT WAS RESOLVED :

That the Cathedral Library be opened to the Clergy of the Diocese, under the following Regulations :—

I.—Any Incumbent or licensed Curate within the Diocese of Lincoln shall be allowed to have not more than three volumes from the Library in his possession at the same time. It will require a written order from the Residentiary in Residence to exceed that number.

II.—Every book shall be returned to the Librarian on or before the first Fridays, respectively, in January, April, July, and October, next ensuing the date of its being taken out; or on or before the day of the permanent removal from the Diocese of any person in possession of any books belonging to the Library.

III.—The Library shall be open for the Clergy on application to the Librarian, or Dean, or Canon in residence, to obtain or consult books, on the first Friday in every month, between the hours of eleven in the forenoon and two in the afternoon—on which days, also, the Librarian will deliver the books for which application shall have been made.

IV.—Books of reference, books of an earlier date than 1600, all general Commentaries on the Scriptures, all rare editions, all such books as cannot readily be replaced, and all books bearing upon them a notice "not to be taken out," as well as all MSS., can only be consulted in the Library.

V.—Applications for books may be made to the Librarian personally, or by some one authorised by the applicant to receive them; and all expenses attending the conveyance of such books shall be paid by the clergyman applying for them.

VI.—A Register shall be kept by the Librarian of every book taken out of the Library.

VII.—A list of any books omitted to be returned at the end of each quarter, together with the name of the borrower, shall be suspended in some conspicuous place of the Library.

VIII.—If any book be injured or defaced by writing while in the possession of any person taking it out of the Library, he shall be required to replace it by another book of the same edition and of equal value.

IX.—Persons taking books out of the Library are required to report, without delay, to the Librarian any injury which they may observe in them.

X.—Any Clergyman who shall have transgressed any of the above, or future Rules or Regulations of the Dean and Chapter, concerning the Library, shall be precluded from taking out any more books.
